

Dean Capital Management Adds Chief Compliance Officer

October 18, 2016 10:07 AM Eastern Daylight Time

OVERLAND PARK, Kan.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Dean Capital Management, LLC (DCM) announces the hiring of Jessica Skinner, JD as chief compliance officer and director of operations for the firm.

“Jessica brings tremendous experience and knowledge to DCM,” said Patrick Krumm, Founding Member and Director of Institutional Sales. “Her addition is a big step forward for our firm, demonstrating our commitment to compliance and growth in the marketplace.”

Skinner joins DCM from Lockton Retirement Services where she was vice president and served as chief compliance officer and compliance counsel for Lockton Investment Advisors, LLC and Lockton Financial Advisors, LLC.

Skinner’s primary role as chief compliance officer will add to DCM’s culture of compliance and support future growth of the firm. As the director of operations, Skinner will also direct many functions for DCM such as RFI & RFP processes, database entry and availability, as well as sales and marketing assistance and client service oriented assistance. In addition, Skinner will provide legal assistance to DCM in the form of contract building, review, and negotiation.

“Jessica has numerous duties, but the bottom line is that she is a first-rate hire allowing DCM to grow both assets and its business in a responsible way,” added Krumm.

To accommodate plans for growth, DCM is also pleased to announce its relocation to 7400 West 130th Street, Suite 350, Overland Park, Kansas 66213.

About Dean Capital Management LLC

Dean Capital Management, LLC is an employee-owned registered investment advisor founded in March 2008. Located in Overland Park, Kansas, DCM is a long-only, fundamental U.S. Value equity manager. DCM manages over $700 million in portfolios across the capitalization spectrum for institutional clients, financial intermediaries, and advisors.

Contacts

Dean Capital Management, LLC

Patrick Krumm, 913-944-4444