

Kevin Laub

Dean Capital Management's investment approach provided for a strong 2016 across its strategies, as the firm was also a finalist in EMM's mid-cap category. In all-cap, the DCM Equity Income strategy placed in the top percentile of managers, with a return of 24.03%.

Along with Doug Leach, Kevin Laub also manages a similar all-cap strategy that is included in the direct emerging manager program run by the Ohio Public Employees Retirement System.

The Overland Park, Kan.-based firm was launched in March 2008 as an affiliate of Ohio-based C.H. Dean, a wealth management firm based out of Dayton.

DEAN | Capital Management

7400 W 130th Street | Suite 350 | Overland Park, KS 66213

Contact: Patrick Krumm | 913-944-4452 | pkrumm@deancapitalmgmt.com

Location: Overland Park, Kan.

Firm AUM: $859M

2016 Performance: 24.03%

www.deancapmgmt.com

Dean Capital Management, LLC ("DCM") is an employee-owned registered investment advisor founded in March 2008. Located in Overland Park, Kansas, DCM is a long-only, fundamental U.S. Value equity manager. DCM manages portfolios across the market capitalization spectrum for institutional clients, financial intermediaries and advisors. Prior to forming DCM, the firm's founding principals worked together for many years at another Kansas City-based institutional investment management firm. DCM's investment professionals maintain significant personal investments in DCM investment products. DCM has been the sub-advisor for the Dean Mutual Funds since June 30, 2008.

